

PROJECT OBJECTIVES

Project objectives are the goals that your project is supposed to achieve. They should be specific, measurable, achievable, relevant and time-bound. They should also be related to the overall business objectives of the company. On the other hand, project plans are what you use to actually achieve those objectives.